Administrative history / Biographical sketch

Note

The Aylmer family lived in Lennoxville, Quebec. Hugh Aylmer later moved to Victoria, B.C.

Scope and content

The fonds consists of three scrapbooks, using the Official Telephone Directory Quebec for December 1915, June 1916, and July 1917. They document World War I, including clippings, honour rolls, correspondence, notes, obituaries, articles and columns relating to the progress of the war and, particularly, to news of men and women from Lennoxville, Quebec, and nearby areas who participated in the war.
