Administrative history / Biographical sketch

Note
Glenn Parfitt is a Canadian music historian.

Custodial history

Material was collected by Glenn Parfitt, founder of the Royal City Music Project, throughout his engagement with Victoria B.C.’s music scene from the 1960s to the present day. The collection was acquired October 2017. Vinyl records, optical discs and cassettes have been removed and catalogued by the University of Victoria Library.

Scope and content

The collection is comprised of ephemera relating to Victoria, B.C.’s music scene, and includes posters, newsletters, ticket stubs, event passes and buttons. The collection also includes architectural records and a door handle from the York Theatre in Vancouver, B.C. Also included is a payroll and expenses ledger for an electric company with entries dated 1941 to 1949.
