SC134-11-11.2, Dated 22/06. Draft, holograph on postcard with 'Old Mythologies on the reverse; thanking Murphy for 'The Hooker' saying they would meet at the Mermaid poetry reading, querying his reaction to the Skelton anthology.	61
SC134-11-11.3, Dated 05/12/1961. Draft, holograph on postcard with Montague's poem 'Cathedral Town' on the reverse; asking for "a sizable poem" for use in the Miscellany and saying he could make a special effort with the Inishboffin (Cleggan) Disaster. (1961)	61
SC134-11-11.4, Biographical note on Richard Murphy, with amendments.	62
SC134-11-11.5, Undated. Draft of letter to Murphy. Noted at the top of the page 'First draft of letter'. Holograph, in ink, on Dolmen Miscellany notepaper; two portions of paper stapled together. Sending 15. Accusing Murphy of lack of interest in the Miscellany except from a financial point of view, of being dilatory in sending any contribution whatsoever and of sending 'The Disaster' to the Cheltenham Festival who then wanted Dolmen to postpone publication and affected O.U.P's choice of date for English publication.	62

John Montague fonds

SC134-11-11.6, Dated 24/10/1962. Thanking Montague for the cheque. Explaining the circumstances about the Cheltenham Festival and the Guinness Awards from his, Murphy's, point of view, together with its envelope. (1962)	62
SC134-11-11.7, Dated 01/03/1972. One sheet, two sides; holograph draft of letter to Richard Murphy from Montague, enclosing the review by John Jordan which he had decided not to use, and saying that Murphy's "...malice to me has become excessive..." whilst he, Montague, had done his best to protect Murphy from unjustified malice. (1972)	63
SC134-11-11.8, Dated 01/03/1972. One sheet, one side; a carbon copy of a typewritten letter to Richard Murphy based on the holograph draft 11.7, signed "John M." (1972)	63

File List from Philobiblion (dealer - Percy Jarrett)

A Catalogue of CORRESPONDENCE and MANUSCRIPTS relating to the production and publication in September 1962 of THE DOLMEN MISCELLANY of Irish Writing; printed and published by Liam Miller, The Dolmen Press, Dublin, with the co-operation of the IRISH ACADEMY of LETTERS.

Most of the letters comprising this collection were addressed to JOHN MONTAGUE who edited the publication. THOMAS KINSELLA was the poetry editor.

Originally to have been titled THE TOWER, the proposal to produce THE DOLMEN MISCELLANY arose following a Poetry Reading in Dublin on February 3rd. 1961 at which John Montague, Thomas Kinsella and Richard Murphy each read their own poems. The Irish Academy of Letters, in the person of Peadar O'Donnell, agreed to subsidize the publication.

In a few cases there are drafts or carbon copies of replies by John Montague to the letters to him; but almost every letter he received bears his brief holograph note or notes indicating his reply.

Administrative history / Biographical sketch

Note

John Montague (born 28 February 1929) is an Irish poet.

Custodial history

This fonds relates to The Dolmen Miscellany Of Irish Writing, originally to be entitled The Tower, which was proposed after a poetry reading in February 1961. The Irish Academy of Letters, in the person of Peadar O'Donnell, agreed to subsidize the publication and it was published by Liam Miller at the Dolmen Press. John Montague was the editor and Thomas Kinsella was the poetry editor.

Scope and content

The fonds consists of correspondence received by Montague in his capacity as editor plus a few carbons of his replies. Correspondents include Peadar O'Donnell, Liam Miller, Thomas Kinsella, and some of the other contributing writers: Aidan Higgins, Pearce Hutchinson, Val Iremonger, John Jordan, James Liddy, John McGahern, Brian Moore, Richard Murphy, James Plunkett, Richard Weber, Leslie Daiken, and Thomas McIntyre. There are also some miscellaneous letters and items; including letters from Samuel Beckett and Robin Skelton. Included with the correspondence are a few holograph notes, cuttings, manuscripts, pamphlets, and ephemera relating to The Dolmen Miscellany.
