Administrative history / Biographical sketch

---

Note

Rona Murray (1924-2003) was born in London, England but lived in India, until she was eight, where her father commanded a Gurkha regiment. She came to Vancouver Island, Canada in 1932 and graduated from Queen Margaret's School (Duncan, B.C.) in 1941 and then studied at Mills College, Oakland, California until 1944. She received a B.A. from Victoria College (1961), an M.A. in Creative Writing from the University of British Columbia (1963) and a Ph.D. in English Literature from the University of Kent at Canterbury (1972). In 1944 Murray married Gerry Hadden and had 3 children. She later divorced, and married ceramics artist Walter Dexter with whom she collaborated on The Art of Earth (1993). Murray was a poet, playwright, fiction writer, and reviewer. She has written or edited 13 books, 5 of which were poetry. She taught for 25 years across British Columbia, including periods at Douglas College, Selkirk College, Castlegar, UVic, and UBC.

Series: SC085-1998-074 - Manuscripts, Correspondence, Reviews

Title: Manuscripts, Correspondence, Reviews

ID: SC085-1998-074

Date: 1992-1998 (date of creation)

Scope and content:

The accrual consists of manuscripts, reviews, correspondence, photographs, drawings.

Physical description: 2 boxes.

Arrangement:

Most of the material is from 1995-1998 but numbered items are not strictly in chronological order. An attempt was made to group non-itemized material at the end of each general category. Some numbered items were re-arranged prior to donation and appear out of sequence. Folders of indexed items will appear in brackets. e.g. 1.1 (1-50).

Finding aids:

A partial item level list was received with Acc. 98-074.
