1. Fonds-level description

Title

Voice of Women, Victoria Branch fonds

Dates

1966-1992

Extent

1.2 m of textual records

Administrative history

The national organization Voice of Women was established in 1960 to protest against war or the threat of war as the decisive method of exercising power, to unite women in concern for the future of the world, and to help promote peaceful negotiations between world powers. The Victoria branch was established ca. 1966.

Scope and content

Fonds consists of subject files containing reports, research and clippings; correspondence, 1983-1992; minutes, 1989-1992; and reports, 1984-1987.

Notes

Acquired from Joyce Stewart, November 1995; Diana Chown, June 2001.
