Title

Building of Change Project fonds

Dates

2000-2002

Extent

13 cm of textual records, 4 audio cassettes, 2 video tapes

Biographical sketch

The Building of Change Project was initiated to document the historical, cultural, political and local importance of the Central Building in Victoria, British Columbia, and the legacy of the community activists and service groups that worked there. The project was sponsored by the UVic Department of Women's Studies and several community groups. Project coordinators were Lisa Helps and Maya Gislason. The project included oral history interviews with activists and video recordings of special events.

Scope and content

The fonds consists of project files including correspondence, funding, proposals, newspaper clippings, research papers; journals and notebook; scrapbook entitled "Building of Change: the process exposed"; oral history interview tapes; video recordings. Audio cassettes included records interviews with: Jacquie Ackerly, Sharon Chow, Harrinder Dhillon, Dorothy Livingston, Norrie Preston, and Joan Russo.

Notes

Gift of Deborah Yaffe, March 2002.
